Roleplaying the Possibility Wars

It's More Than Fantasy . . . It's Everything!

In the Near Now, Earth is invaded by different realities. These realities change portions of our world into someplace else. Now fantasy, primitive, pulp adventure, cybertech, espionage and horror realms all exist side-by-side on Earth. Anything is possible when reality changes — and only heroic Storm Knights have the power to save the planet from the invaders!

What is a Roleplaying Game?

In a roleplaying game, you and other players take the parts of characters in a story. You decide how your character acts and behaves. One player is the gamemaster. He or she describes what your character sees, establishes the story's plot, and uses the game rules to referee group interaction. Together, you create your own saga as you play.

Roleplaying stresses group participation and cooperation. It emphasizes imagination and creative thinking. It makes use of reading and math skills. And what's more, roleplaying is fun and exciting. Get in on the action today!

THE REAL
GHOSTBUSTERS
C/O NOW COMICS
332 SOUTH MICHIGAN
SUITE 1750
CHICAGO, IL 60604

Dear NOW:

You guys have really done it this time! You've made your comic of THE REAL GHOSTBUSTERS even better than before. It's like reading and watching the RGB cartoon. I hope you carry on what Peter started and let him be the crazy one out of the four Ghostbusters. One other thing, in one of the issues Egon is seen working on the Ecto-3. You really can't see what it is. If you don't mind I, and many other REAL GHOSTBUSTER fans, would like to see what it really is! And who knows what it could be?!

Sincerely,
Michael Hyatt
Cerritos, CA

Dear Michael:

Thanks to another loyal REAL GHOSTBUSTERS reader (Lisa Mower of Norfolk, VA) you can indeed see the Ecto-3 in all its glory. And as for what it is... read on dear sir!

Dear Now:

I would like to answer the question asked in issue #23, "What da heck is the Ecto-3?" The Ecto-3 is a motorized unicycle with a sidecar and two pivot particle throwers on each side. This machine is capable of compacting into a very small box-like object which is placed in the back wheel-well of the all famous Ecto-1. It has a tiny flag pointing out of the back with a GB logo and a big 3 on it. This vehicle starts like a push lawn mower. One pull of the cord and you're off! And last, two helmets are included for protection. My guess is that Ray designed and constructed this strange vehicle because he seems to be the type of guy to do such a thing. Congrats Ray! But other than that, you've had some pretty awesome stories and artwork. So do keep that up!

Awesome work, keep bustin'!

Nevil Stephens
Winnipeg, MB Canada

Dear Nevil:

Thanks for the scoop on the infamous Ecto-3. You've helped put many a loyal reader's mind at ease!

Greetings Gentlemen of NOW:

A question was asked by one of your readers as to what the Ecto-3 is and what issue it appeared in. Being a Ghostbuster Booster, I have every issue since the comic began and the Ecto-3 never appeared! However, this does not mean it does not exist. For your pleasure and for all those readers out there that are interested, here is the breakdown of the vehicles used by the Ghostbusters:

1. Ecto-1 - The 1957 Ambulance with PKE tracking devices and Proton cannon and Extended Ecto Traps.

2. Ecto-2 - A two seat mini helicopter with a Proton cannon.

3. Ecto-3 - A motorized unicycle with side car. This vehicle appeared in the syndicated cartoon series.

4. Ecto-4 - The assault air craft with Proton cannons and a Flux Capacitor for time and interdimensional travel.

I hope this letter will answer your and other readers' questions. I have been following the Ghostbusters' exploits since the first movie. So keep up the good work. At this rate The Real Ghostbusters can only get better!

Sincerely,
Craig Saunders
Los Angeles, CA

Dear Craig:

Thanks for answering the question about the Ecto-3 and for your complete list of Ecto-vehicles! Hopefully everyone now knows which Ecto is which! As far as the appearance of the Ecto-3 in NOW Comics goes... reference to the Ecto-3 was made in RGB issue 5. However, this vehicle eventually evolved into what is now the Ecto-4. And, only time will tell what Egon, Ray, Winston and Peter will create for the Ecto-5!!

NEWSFLASH NOW NEWSFLASH

Out this month, for your reading pleasure, kiddies, are some ultra choice number ones from NOW COMICS. For you gore/occult fans, NOW is officially presenting Bats, Cats, and Cadillacs! This off the wall bizarre comedy series features the adventures and wild undertakings of three friends, who just happen to be flatmates and who just happen to be able to transform themselves into odd creatures of the night. Rich, the ever-wealthy, ever-wrinkled, and ever-tasteless Cadillac owner, has an unusual capability, or curse, which enables him to become a rat. That's right! He's a were rat, and his roommate, Ian, is a were cat, only he's graceful, organized, and extremely handsome. You can see how that makes for a most excellent odd couple. Throw in a cute but clumsy vampire named Theresa and the nights and night-clubbing never seem to end. They are three young nocturnal thrill seekers with absolutely nothing to lose, except the sanity of their neighbor, Don, who gets sucked into their hell bent evenings when his insomnia gets the best of him. You have to read it to believe it!

Fantasy buffs take note! NOW COMICS proudly presents a shock to your senses with MIRRORWALKER, Number 1. The technological world, the publishing world, the comic world, and the photo world are about to be knocked out with this two issue comic that combines special effects photography with expert cartooning. Alan Nonsense, your average, run of the mill, unlucky plug, stumbles upon a magical gem that turns the 2-D world of reflecting glass into a doorway to other fantastic, and sometimes dangerous, worlds. Even Roger Rabbit didn't go this far! Castles, damsels in distress, and various, assorted monsters bring out the best of Alan Nonsense. Photographic backgrounds by award winning photographer Erich Schrempp create illusionistic and mind bending space for the cartoon characters to run amuck in. Created and drawn by Barry Petersen, and written by famed comic writer, Marv Wolfman, Mirrorwalker rewrites the passe conventions of comic books.

And, not just for collectors only, the Terminator Graphic Novel goes on sale in comic specialty shops this month. This graphic novel combines two issues of fully painted artwork into one complete story depicting the events that led up to that blockbusting hit, The Terminator. Find out what happened before Arnold, the killing machine, traveled through time to do away with little Miss Sarah Connor. Set in the future, or would it be the past, Terminator The Graphic Novel has got it all, blood, death, high tech weaponry, love, and Terminators galore. He's back!

And don't forget about part two of Tales of the Green Hornet! This two issue, fully painted mini stars the 1960's version of the Green Hornet and is written by the actor who played him, Van Williams. Based on personal experience, Van Williams leads Bruce Lee's Kato back to Japan to become a star in a Ninja movie, produced as a front for heroin smuggling by a crooked movie mogul. But the Green Hornet will have none of that when the filming comes to his home town! He and Kato bust moves and kick butt better than ever in "The Burma Horse"!

And, for those beloved Speed Racer fans, the third round of videos will be out this month! Five! Count them, Five Videos! Volumes 6-10, including: The Race Around The World!, The Desperate Desert Race!, The Mach V vs. The Mach VI, The Race Against Time!, The Secret Invaders! The tapes sell for $19.95 in comic retail shops nation wide! Each tape features one story told in two one half hour episodes! An hour's worth of Speed Racer on each! VHS only.

Next month! Don't miss out on The Twilight Zone! NOW COMICS has picked up the Twilight Zone and will be publishing it as a monthly comic, featuring a different creative team each month! The first issue is a double sized special including two stories. The first is "Crazy as a Soup Sandwich", by Harlan Ellison. It's an adaptation of an original Harlan television episode. Illustrations for this story are by comic god, Neal Adams! Cover for this issue will be supplied by Bill Sienkiewicz! One week later, this very issue will be perfect bound and sold as a prestige format for collectors, and, to top off the deal, Harlan Ellison will write a short story found only in this prestige format. Neal Adams will also be lending his talents for the big bonus by illustrating Harlan's short story.
